BATTERED BY STORM Santa Cruz, Calif., Dec. 2.-With her wireless apparatus, one mast and one lifeboat gone, and two other lifeboats smashed, the torpedo boat destroyer Truxton arrived in the harbor here late Monday after battling for two days with the most severe storm in the experience of her officers and crew. For the greater part of the two days not a man on the Truxton took time to eat, and for hours at a stretch it seemed impossible to prevent the little vessel foundering. When she arrived here she virtually applies are being taken aboard so that the Truxton may resume her voyage to other destrovers, the Truxton left San Pedro for San Francisco, and a few
